

500,000 Watch Crowning of Pope John XXIII

Four Hour Ceremony Conducted

VATICAN CITY — (UPI) — Pope John XXIII, the humble son of an Italian farmer, was crowned 262nd pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church today in a ceremony of devout and regal splendor.

Five hundred thousand persons massed on the cobble-stoned square of St. Peter's thronged an oval of "Viva il Papa" when the three-tiered crown of gold, silver and diamonds was placed upon his head.

THE 76-YEAR-OLD man who was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli had assumed the full powers of leadership of the world's 500 million Catholics at the time the College of Cardinals elected him as successor to Pope Pius XII.

Today he was crowned at the end of a four-hour ceremony that emphasized publicly his servitude to God and reminded him that he is a mortal man and all things of this world pass as does flax consumed by the flame of a candle.

THE CEREMONY of crowning the new pope took place on the main balcony of St. Peter's Basilica where Nicola Cardinal Canali placed the golden tiara on his head with these words:

"Receive this tiara adorned with three crowns and know that thou art the father of princes and kings, guide of the world, vicar upon earth of Jesus Christ our Lord to Whom let there be glory and honor without end."

A TREMENDOUS roar from the crowd echoed from the seven hills of Rome and the Pope arose and bestowed upon it his blessing from below the red velvet and gold-rimmed canopy set up to protect him from rain or sun.

The Pope departed from tradition today in having the coronation coincide with one of Italy's greatest holidays, the anniversary of its great victory in World War I. Usually the coronation is on Sunday.

BUT THE PUBLIC crowning on the balcony followed the custom reestablished by the late Pius XII who died Oct. 9 at Castel Gandolfo.

The majestic religious ceremonies were held inside the basilica before a crowd of churchmen and notables from throughout the world — royalty and diplomats of 50 sovereign nations including the United States and many nations which are non-Christian.

FOR ALL ITS magnificence, the ceremony ended on a humble note. The Pontiff returned alone from his triumphant appearance on the balcony to his austere apartments. There he took in solitude the burden of spiritual leadership of almost 500 million Catholics throughout the world.

Even the flash of jeweled crowns, the rich garments of the processions and coronation pagentry were diffused in the humble sacrifice of the mass Pope John said bareheaded at the central altar under the 300-foot dome of St. Peter's.

It was subdued further by the three-worded admonition by an assistant as the Pontiff dropped flax into the flames of a candle: "Sic transit gloria mundi," thus passes the glory of the world.

Confessed Slayer Leads Officers To Grave Site

Confessed rapist-slayer Harvey M. Glatman led homicide detectives late Monday night to a barren desert area near Thousand Palms where he strangled attractive Judy Ann Dull, 19, more than a year ago.

Glatman, 39-year-old television repairman, posed as an amateur photographer to lure his three known victims out in the desert where he forced them to pose in the nude and then raped and killed them. He maintained his outward calm when he pointed out the shallow grave near here where he dumped Miss Dull's body Aug. 2, 1957.

She was his first victim, Glatman told police. He later killed model Ruth Rita Mercado, 24, and Mrs. Shirley Ann Bridgeford, 24, divorcee-mother of two children, in San Diego County and left their bodies in the desert. The remains of the two victims were discovered last week when Glatman led police to them.

Red Charge Nationalists Use Poison Gas

TAIPEI, (UPI) — The Communists claimed today that U. S. supplied guns on Quemoy fired poison-gas shells at the Red-held mainland Monday, and alarmed Nationalists charged that the Reds are preparing to gas the defenders of the tiny outpost island.

"This is a shameless lie, calculated to pave the way for Communist adoption of such weapons. The United States never supplied us with such weapons. We never intend to use such weapons against our own people on the mainland, who are held captive by the Communists."

Northwest Lashed by Pacific Storm

United Press International

A Pacific storm lashed the Northwest Monday night and northeasterners dug out of a snow and sleet storm, but weathermen predicted mostly fair, mild weather in most of the nation for today's elections.

The western storm, blamed for at least one death, whipped Washington and Oregon with gusts up to 81 m.p.h. and drenching rains.

Annie Maureen Thomas, 18, Seattle, a student at Pacific Lutheran College, was electrocuted Monday night when a power line blew down and wrapped around her waist as she walked along a street in Tacoma.

The high winds snapped power lines along the Washington coast and property damage was expected to be high. Coast Guardsmen sought the fishing boat Mode-O-Day which radioed for help and then went off the air.

48 Million Expected to Cast Ballots

Weather Fine Throughout United States

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Americans in an hourly swelling tide today cast ballots which will determine control of the 86th Congress and affect the 1960 presidential race.

Some forecasters predicted a record off-year vote approaching 48 million. The weather was fine over most of the country.

EARLY REPORTS showed voting heaviest where the local issues and races were hottest, as in Ohio, and lightest where the outcome was not in doubt, as in the South.

At stake across the country were 33 Senate and 432 House seats plus 32 governorships and hundreds of other state and local posts and propositions.

Also at stake was the political future and presidential hopes of such veterans as Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, and such relative newcomers as Knowland's Democratic opponent for the California governorship, Edmund G. Brown, and Harriman's GOP foe, Nelson A. Rockefeller.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER was among the day's fairly early voters. He also was one of the zippiest. He flew to Gettysburg, Pa., by helicopter in 40 minutes, voted in just 24 seconds, and flew back to the capital.

Democrats claimed the expected heavy turnout would boost their current majorities in both House and Senate. Republicans said nothing about the Senate but contended they would recapture the House.

EARLY REPORTS showed: New York — Large turnout upstate indicated record vote. Early voting light in Bronx and Manhattan but unusually heavy in Brooklyn. Fine weather.

California — Generally fair weather. Unusually long lines outside San Francisco polling places. City Registrar Thomas Toomey predicted total vote about 10 per cent above normal.

Colorado — Heavy in pleasant weather.

OHIO — VOTING so heavy that Secretary of State Ted W. Brown raised his estimate of a record 3,450,000 off-year votes to 3,600,000.

Massachusetts — Bug turnout in Boston under sunny skies.

Pennsylvania — Moderate, to heavy voting in early hours.

In New Jersey, Michigan, and the Chicago area early voting was light, but fine weather could boost the pace.

THE FIRST RETURNS came from Waterville, N. H., a mountain hamlet which cast a total of 21 votes. The breakdown was 15 Republican to six Democratic votes.

Mary Florsheim Said Improved

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Mrs. Mary Florsheim Jones, heiress-wife of singer Allan Jones, remained on the critical list but was slightly improved today following an apparent suicide attempt, hospital authorities reported.

Mrs. Jones, 32, heiress to the Florsheim shoe fortune, has been in a coma since her admittance to UCLA Medical Center Sunday.

Still $3,000 Short

Translator TV Started Again

Even though Translator Stations Inc. are still approximately $3,000 short of the $14,500 which must be raised to keep the free TV on the air, members of the Board of Directors have ordered it started again.

Off for two weeks to the day, in an attempt to measure the amount of interest in the Translator system, the period of time brought in some $8,000.

GEORGE RIPLEY, secretary-treasurer of the organization, said that the funds that are now in hand "solve the problem for a few months" but the additional funds are needed. He asks that anyone who has not donated $15 per set, to do so, and the operation of the stations will be guaranteed through this year.

And, now, with money worries temporarily off their mind, directors will start pressing for action by the Federal Communications Commission to secure approval to continue broadcasting.

TWO WEEKS AGO the local Translator Stations received word that they could use remote control on their station, which should soon solve the problem of the stations cutting off the air in the midst of a broadcast.

The device will be installed by the corporation's engineer Frank Chalfont, who has been operating the stations for the past few months.

Add Parade

Mounted Police Set Rodeo Dates

Mounted Police officials today set Feb. 7 and 8 as dates for the 19th annual Palm Springs Rodeo. Rodeo Chairman Joe Butler said the Saturday parade preceding the first rodeo events will be reinstated this year. The rodeo parade was dropped from last year's program.

BUTLER EXPLAINED that while the rodeo showed a greater profit without the parade, a Chamber of Commerce poll indicated that 83 per cent of the chamber members were in favor of the parade's revival.

It was also pointed out that the Retail Merchants Association, headed by Ed McCoubrey, pledged its support of the parade.

BUTLER SAID THAT sale of the rodeo program would finance this year's parade. He said that if "sufficient merchants subscribe to the program, we will use this method for financing of future parades."

All rodeo profits, Butler said, are used to replenish first aid supplies for the Mounted Police and to maintain their rescue equipment.

Refresher Course to Be Given in Catholic Religion

A refresher course in the Fundamentals of the Catholic Religion will be given in Palm Springs, starting Wednesday in St. Theresa's Auditorium, 2900 East Ramon Road, at 8 p.m.

The course will continue for 20 weeks, and will cover the doctrinal aspects of the Catholic teaching. Although primarily intended for Catholics, the course should prove of interest to non-Catholics as well, and they are invited, it was stated.

The purpose of the course is to give lay people a fresh outlook and a better understanding of the most fundamental dogmas of the Church. What has been learned by children in catechism classes and Sunday schools must be re-studied and reconsidered when they reach adulthood, officials said.

The course will give an opportunity to Catholics for a new evaluation of their faith; to others, it will give a better knowledge of what Catholics believe.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. —(UPI) — A survey of 1,200 secretaries showed that 37 per cent of their bosses never comment on their hair; only 17 per cent allow extra time at lunch for beauty parlor appointments, and only 23 per cent ever compliment their secretaries on a new dress.

Gives Self Up

Suspect Admits Check Charges

Raymond Earl Mosley, 28-year-old former Palm Springs truck driver, yesterday admitted passing a dozen bogus checks here to "get everything straightened out."

Mosley, who returned to California from Dallas, Texas, to surrender himself to local police, admitted passing no account checks for about $125 in merchandise and cash on Sept. 30, police said.

Detective T. M. Aitken reported that Mosley, charged with four bogus check counts, appeared before Judge Eugene Theriault and was ordered held for Indio Superior Court action on Nov. 13.

Mosley told Aitken that after passing the checks, he went to Dallas to see his family before returning here to "get things straightened out." His car broke down in El Centro, however, and he gave himself up to police there for transport to Palm Springs.

Mosley said he was previously employed here as a laundry truck driver.

Book Week Tips For Tots, Teens

By GERRY VANEK
"I always think the cover of a book is like a door. That opens into someone's house where I've not been before.
A pirate or a fairy queen May lift the latch for me; I always wonder when I knock. What welcome there will be."

And what better time is there to knock on the door of Bookland (as Annie Fellows Johnston so poetically expresses the thought) than during Book-Week, which we will be celebrating from Nov. 2 to 9.
Both the Main and Branch Libraries will feature colorful posters, book markers, and book-list pamphlets for you during this special week; and even more important, there will be wonderful new-book displays for your enjoyment and enlightenment...

THE LOLLYPOP set will want dubs on Anderson's new horse stories: THE CROOKED COLT, PONY FOR FREE, and AFRAID TO RIDE. And they'll want to make friends with MELVIN THE MOOSE and THE WIDE-AWAKE OWL, as introduced by Louis Slobodkin.
Meeting Mother Goose is especially fun in the new version by Carolyn Wells and her eight artist friends. Those who already have a crush on Kiki, Muffy, Patsy, and Lulu will soon be feeling the same way about Charlotte Steiner's latest lovable character who pops up in TERRY WRITES A LETTER.

INTERMEDIATES will be interested in the news that MRS. PIGGLE-WIGGLE's back to tell you about her MAGIC and her FARM. And she's not the only one — THE GOOD AMERICAN WITCH and THE GOOD KNIGHT GHOST will be here to greet you and your giggles, too! SAL FISHER is a Brownie Scout who flies-up, and MISS CATHY LEONARD decides to become the neighborhood story-teller during summer vacation.
Mystery fans will pounce on three new ones by Enid Blyton. The Petershams have illustrated the stories of David, Moses, and Ruth for those who love Biblical tales.

TEEN-AGE BOYS who are science-minded (and who isn't nowadays?) should find their minds — stimulated by titles like EXPLORING MARS, EXPLORING EARTH AND SPACE, FROM THE EARTH TO THE MOON, and ALL ABOUT SATELLITES AND SPACE SHIPS.
More down-to-earth, but still intriguing are the following: FAMOUS SCIENTIFIC EXPEDITIONS, MEN OF MEDICINE, BUILDING YOUR SUPER HIGHWAYS, DESERT DWELLERS, AN ADVENTURE.

TURE IN GEOMETRY (which is like no other math book you ever saw!)... and hooby books like VENTRILQUISISM and COINS AND CURRENCY OLD AND NEW.

FOR JUST PLAIN good storytelling THE SECRET OF THE SAMURAI SWORD and FOLLOW MY LEADER (about a boy and his seeing-eye dog) are tops.
Teen-age girls will be attracted to 'wo of Sherburne's latest ALMOST APRIL and THE HIGH, WHITE WALL. TEEN-AGER'S GUIDE FOR LIVING is timely and helpful. Those with a fancy for the footlights will find new books on STAGE COSTUMES AND MAKE-UP, THE THEATER, and HOW TO HAVE A SHOW. Books on ballet and collections of poetry suit other moods...

BOYS AND GIRLS of all ages will find favorites among such varied subjects as ARCHEOLOGY, MYTHOLOGY, PHOTOGRAPHY, and somebody even did something about THE WEATHER — they wrote a book about it! Want to know about CHESS, CLOWNS AND CIRCUSES, COLONIAL LIVING, or CANADA? We've got 'em; come and get 'em!
Nancy Byrd Turner must have been thinking of our libraries when she wrote:

"This book and that book We're richer than a mint. Blessings of the good men Who first learned to print!"

MOTOR SHIP—Oil Painting by Herb Pfeffer, contemporary American painter
Courtesy of Herb Pfeffer Fine Art Studio—Rancho Mirage

You can enjoy a pleasant cruise to a strange new port almost every day aboard this modern motorship. A combination passenger and cargo vessel, it can circle the globe with ease and comfort. However, it is especially designed in draft size, cargo space and operational features for inter-island and port-to-port coastal service. Such ships make possible the regular supply and transportation lines linking thousands of communities together in all seas throughout the world. They provide such indispensable service as delivering or receiving cargoes of all kinds including mail, publications, medicines, foods, supplies, passengers and all kinds of merchandise. They serve millions of people not on the routes of the great steamers, airlines, railroads or highways. Be the weather fair or foul, courses are set and every effort made to maintain schedules in performing a vital service to mankind.

The motorship, with its special regional functions, may in many ways be compared to the modern newspaper, particularly those such as The DESERT SUN which serves a locality and area as distinctly different in climate, interests, geography and topography as is the Desert Empire.

Designed especially to provide fast, accurate and comprehensive news coverage and the most economical advertising service to the desert region, The DESERT SUN, like the motorship, has become an indispensable part of the lives of more than 25,000 people in Palm Springs and outlying communities who scan its columns daily for news, pictures, entertainment, information, classified bargains or services, and the latest offerings in display advertising.

Every day The DESERT SUN brings a completely new, interesting, exciting and satisfying cargo within its pages for subscribers, and a new group of buyers and customers for its advertisers.

As is the case in a busy seaport, hundreds of travelers including new residents arrive daily to stop, shop and see our attractions. Within minutes most have a copy of The DESERT SUN. Visitor or resident, all enjoy the daily "cruise" through its pages.

In Palm Springs "All Aboard" is truly symbolic of The DESERT SUN.

The displays entered included crocheted stoles and purses, quilts, tea towels and an interesting butter chip collection entered by Gladys Newhouse.

Two winter residents of Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Merle H. Guise, now at Del Hai Mo Lodge, have just returned from a four-month trip "home." Alaska had been home to Merle Guise for many years. This summer he decided to show Helen, his "cheechako" wife, the country over which he had prospected, by means of malamute-team, snowshow, raft, canoe, on foot, and later by plane.

The couple drove up and back over the Alaska Highway. At Fairbanks, they headquartered on the tenth floor of an apartment building. Merle recalled his arrival in Fairbanks, after "mushing" on foot, as a boy, over the four-hundred-mile Valdez Trail. He arrived with only $2.50 in his pocket, but with his feet full of blisters. The first night he bunked in a crude log cabin, at four-bits per bunk. Now, an apartment in Fairbanks might cost as much per hour.

The thousand miles or more of black-top road in Alaska they covered by car. Other sections were "explored" by plane: Point Barrow, Nome, Kotzebue, and Fort Yukon.

Fairbanks took the day off to celebrate "Statehood" Day on June 30. Guise expresses the opinion, that if the same efforts devoted to developing the natural resources of the country, statehood might have come in without resistance. The conservatives comment, that time will tell whether this was a sensible move at this time, he reports.

On Discovery Day, July 21, Guise entered the "World's Gold-Panning Contest" and placed second. He lost out by six seconds to the winner, whose time was 1 minute, 30 seconds. At Dawson, Y. T., August 21, Klondike Day, he finished first, but was disqualified by losing one of the small nuggets.

The couple report the Alaska Highway is rather monotonous and pretty dusty.

HOW MUCH MONEY is in that fishbowl? has Nancy Kiner, on left, Mouse Powell and Charles Farrell guessing. They will find out the night of the Millionaire's Party, first big special event at the Racquet Club, and set for the night of November 13. The bowl is filled with ones and fives, but all those inside ones could be rolls of fives. Guessing right won't make you a millionaire but it will help, Charlie says. (Anderson Photo)

PANNING GOLD in the Fairbanks Golden Days Contest, Merle Guise, on right, emerged runner up with time 1:36. Winner Curtis Abelgaard, on left, had six seconds less time.

Cielo Vista P-TA Hosts The Ghosts

Witches, goblins, spooks and other spectacular beings haunted the halls of Cielo Vista School Halloween Night, where they were delightfully entertained by the Cielo Vista P-TA which sponsored this event.

The earlier part of the evening was devoted to Carnival type games, a fortune Teller Booth, a Pun-Pun Show, and the most frightening event — A Startling Spook House! Appropriate "Spook" music filled the air during this period.

When everyone had been thoroughly frightened and entertained there was a relaxing fun-laughing series of Cartoons shown. Along with this movie series, refreshments were served to the parents and children.

The annual Halloween School Parade was held at 1:30 that same afternoon with a colorful display of costumes. A nice crowd was there to view this spectacle.

Packaged caramels melted with a dash of cream, or milk, make a nice quick sauce for puddings and desserts.

Halloween Party at Thunderbird

Jack-o-lanterns and intricate black-and-orange crepe paper lattice-work, created a Halloween atmosphere for Thunderbird's opening dinner dance Friday evening.

Parties gathered in the lounge for cocktails and filled the dining-room comfortably for the dinner hour, dancing to the music of the Ruby Moss Quartet. Maitre d' Emil was back to welcome the arriving members and their guests, and supervised the serving of a fine prime rib dinner.

Two large dinner parties hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Christie and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Froggatt, occupied long tables in the central portion of the room.

Among the Froggatts' guests were Thunderbird president and Mrs. Kent Hayes just returned from summering in Michigan. Others were: Messrs. and Mmes. Barney Hinkle, Emily DeWare (just back from Santa Barbara), Paul and Trudy Reynolds, Mrs. George Robertson (George was in Tucson for University of Arizona Home Coming), Lou and Ruth Manseau, the Ralph Singers and his daughter and son-in-law the Jerry Colcords, the George Dulany (they have been in Chicago for three weeks and visited their farm at Clinton, Ohio, the Bill Crawford, Dolph Obergfel (Kay is at Ardens).

At the Christies' long table were: Messrs. and Mmes. John McClure, Edwin Fallgren, Harold MacAlister, Gene Kegley, W. B. Malouf, Harold Cooper, Jack Luccarelli, John Costello.

The Howard Morris had as their guests the S. P. Manasses, Co. Thorntons, Glenn Austins. With Edith and Dick Edwards were Celeste and John Rogers and Ruth and Jack Mann.

Also in the dinner crowd were: Judge and Mrs. James Garibaldi, Mr. and Mrs. LaFevre, Mrs. Milt Hicks, the George Barretts, Barney Gengenbachs, Tony Burkes, the Walter Braunschweigers, Lee Douds, Dolph Bremers, Joel Stomes, Ellsworth Vines, Joe Hales, Charles Millikans, Robin Barnes and Jack Williamson, and others.

Houseguest Entertained At Dinner

Mrs. Clara Mae Wright of Los Angeles, who is the houseguest of Colonel and Mrs. Chester Cohagen at their home on Camino del Sur, was entertained at a small dinner party at Ingleside Inn Sunday evening. Others in the group were Dr. and Mrs. Conrad Miller of Redlands and Ruth Hardy who is an old school friend of Mrs. Wright (the two were former classmates at college in Indiana).

Mrs. Cohagen plans to leave for New York at the end of the week to visit her daughter Patti Preble who is on the production staff of the new quiz program "Concentration" which replaces the TV show "21 Spot" Thursday evenings.

Leaving New York, Mrs. Cohagen will join her husband in San Antonio, Texas where they will visit his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cohagen, (he is vice president of Argo Oil) and her sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Bancroft. Dr. Bancroft is a research scientist working on spaceship travel for the Air Force at Randolph Air Force Base.

Mrs. Cohagen's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curtis Preble Jr. of Chicago, whom she will visit before returning home, are planning to spend Christmas here at the Cohagen home.

In addition . . . Martin Beck's production of "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter" continues at El Paseo Theatre . . . and it is worth seeing . . . If you hadn't noticed yet . . . the lights are on at Romanoffs on the Rocks . . . and it won't be long until Tennis Club lights up . . . It's a busy and an interesting time of the year in Palm Springs . . .

C. Johnson . . . Through special arrangement with El Mirador . . . these hats will be on sale at El Mirador at the opening Bavarian Beer Festival tomorrow night . . . Sale, of course, will benefit the Float fund . . .

The Crestview home of Col. and Mrs. Edward Banning . . . filled with furniture and mementoes of their years in the Orient . . . was the charming setting for a Saturday night cocktail-buffet . . .

The Bannings' guests duplicated a group that was entertained at the Thunderbird home of the Joe Hales last Spring . . . with the exception of the Bannings' houseguest Col. Clarence (Dutch) Shankle, USAF Retired . . . and Mrs. Mary Bedford-Jones . . . recently returned to her Palm Valley ranch home . . .

Bobby and Bill Perlberg arrived home this weekend . . . They went to Boston for the tryout and New York for the opening of the new Perlberg-Seaton play that is such a smash hit . . .

It was raining and un-Palm-springsish in Manhattan . . . so once they found the play was a hit . . . the Perlbergs took off for sunny Florida aboard the Barney (Mr. Paramount) Balaban's yacht . . .

Roberta and Walt Sibbert leave November 13 . . . flying to their home state of Iowa for their first visit in five years . . . Walt's an alumnus of Iowa State and they will attend the Iowa-Ohio and the Iowa-Notre Dame games . . . and help root his alma mater into Rose Bowl . . .

Chatting with Blanche Dulany at the Froggatts' dinner party . . . at Thunderbird's opening dinner dance . . . and found out they will only be here for about a month . . . and are planning a trip to Japan next March . . . They have leased their Thunderbird home to Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis who had it before . . . Lewis is chairman of the board for Libby-Owens Glass Company . . .

Blanche and George are just back from Chicago . . . but they spent the summer at their La Jolla home . . . entertaining children and grandchildren . . . They have three sons and nine grandchildren . . . so it was a progressive visit . . .

Joan (Mrs. Frank) Bering is due out from Chicago November 11 (that's next Tuesday) . . . and will be staying at the Dulany cottage . . .

The Herman Ridders . . . who bought the Sydney Schiff home on Santa Rosa . . . have been in Pebble Beach attending the California Newspaper Publishers meeting held at Del Monte Lodge . . . He owns a chain of newspapers including the Press-Telegram in Long Beach where they maintain a home . . .

PlayerStage Production Fast Moving

Opening night of the PlayerStage production, "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter," at El Paseo Theatre Thursday evening, attracted a crowd of almost 200 people.

The fast-moving comedy drew much applause and laughter and is a credit to the producer, performers and all those who had a part in the show.

In the outer lobby, following the show, champagne punch and hors d'oeuvres were served by blonde hostesses (who had their hair sprayed in keeping with the show) to the cast and their many friends who attended opening night.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and the show will continue through Sunday, November 9.

Mathias Warns

Russia To Win In 1960

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK (UP) — Two-time Olympic decathlon champion Bob Mathias warned American athletes today that it would take a super-human effort to prevent Russia from scoring an overwhelming victory in the 1960 Olympic Games at Rome.

The United States probably will win the track and field championship, he analyzed. This is due to the fact that we have so many fine sprinters and middle distance men while European countries battle the Reds in the distances.

"BUT WHEN YOU throw in all the other events, the Russians are training so many athletes in the minor sports that they figure to hand the rest of the world a bad beating for the overall unofficial championship," Mathias explained.

Looking at his specialty, which he won at London in 1948 and in which he set a world record at Helsinki in 1952, Mathias expressed doubt that current world record holder Rafer Johnson would be able to create a new mark in the international games.

"THE DECATHLON, in which you compete in 10 events in two days, is what tires you out," explained the rangy Californian turned motion picture star. "I have never been as tired, before or since, as I was the night finished up at Helsinki."

That day he started at 10 a.m. and didn't finish until 10 p.m.

"YOU BUILD YOURSELF up to a peak effort and get your muscles all loose," he added. "Then you take one turn and you have to go sit down and wait interminably while other competitors from all over the world take their turn. You're up and down like a yo-yo."

Shelby Wins Special Exhibition Race

Has Top Speed of 165 MPH

Lanky, experienced Carroll Shelby poured the fuel to his special Maserati and built up a speed of 165 m.p.h. on the long straight-away to win with a 22 second lead over his nearest opponent in the "exhibition race" at the Palm Springs Road Race Sunday.

The fifteenth running of the Palm Springs Road Races proved as big a thriller as they ever have been, but a disappointing crowd of approximately 5,000 was in attendance.

GEORGE CAREY, promoter of the local races, said that the small crowd was a result of most of the West Coast's top drivers clashing over rules between the sponsoring group, the Sports Car Club of America, and local driver groups.

A beautiful day for sports car driving, the main 20-lap exhibition race was one of thrills and extraordinary good driving. Max Balchowsky whipped his faithful "Old Yeller" Buick into second place, but he was a long 22 seconds behind Shelby who made the 48 mile run in 39:47.

WITH THE "EXHIBITION" race run as the second to the last race on Sunday, the final race took on all the aspects of the big race of the afternoon.

Jack McAfee in a Porsche Soyder, averaged a speed of 68.75 m.p.h. over the newly routed course at the airport.

IN THE BIG WOMAN'S race of the day, Betty Shutes, driving a Renault, sped over the finish line to capture the title.

Carey said yesterday that he is planning another race in Palm Springs in February, and will ask for approval of the racing dates by the Palm Springs City Council.

Baseball Owners To Meet Nov. 5, 6

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — Baseball owners from coast to coast meet here Wednesday and Thursday to explore plans for realigning the minor leagues.

Proposals will be made for shifting franchise, expanding existing leagues and creating new ones. It will all be done in an effort to save minor league baseball from running into more financial troubles.

Five-Member Cage Loop Now Planned

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — A basketball association composed of teams from California, UCLA, Stanford, USC and Washington is expected to be formed later this month for the 1959-60 campaign—and thereby hangs the zaniest tale of West Coast sports history.

"There is nothing definite about it," said Coach Pete Newell of California, "but I understand that the athletic directors of the schools want us to get together on such an organization."

"THE PROPOSAL" now looks as though we would play three games against each opponent each year—a total of 12 league games.

But Newell pointed out a strange facet to the proposal: "IF SUCH A group is formed, we still wouldn't be considered a league under the N.C.A.A. rules and our champion would not get a play-off berth. We would be considered an independent group and would have to play off with some other independent for the right to compete in the play-offs. Under N.C.A.A. rules it takes six teams to make an official conference."

"This is the final, sad come-uppance for the once-proud members of the Pacific Coast Conference."

'Father of Sugar Bowl' Dies in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — Fred Digby, "father of the Sugar Bowl" and veteran sports writer, died here Monday at the age of 65 after a lifetime of promotion and devotion to every athletic event.

Funeral services are scheduled to be held Wednesday.

At the time of his death, Digby was general manager of the Midwinter Sports Association, sponsor of the week-long Sugar Bowl events, and historian for the Football Writers Association of America.

123 to Compete In Carling Open

ATLANTA (UP) — The $25,000 sixth annual Carling Open golf tournament gets under way Wednesday with a field of 123, including some of the nation's top pros, geared for a 72-hole battle over the tough Cherokee Town and Country Club course.

The Cherokee, just completed last fall, is a 7,004-year, par-72 course abounding with natural and man-made obstacles. The golfers will play 18-hole rounds Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday.

Sultans Miss Win by Missing 60 Yard Pass

A flare of tempers and a narrow miss by the Coachella Valley Athletic Club Sultans on a pass from the 60 yard line, resulted in South Gate barely eking out a win over the Valley's powerful semi-pro team.

The last Sultan TD came in the final minute of the final quarter when Charlie Black tossed a 55-yard pass to his favorite receiver Norm Sicher on the goal line. With only seconds to play, Willie White missed a 60-yard pass from Black that kept the Sultans out of the win column.

The other Sultan tally was made by Bo Wallace who picked up a South Gate fumble and raced 65 yards with only seven minutes left in the final quarter.

The final score was CVAC Sultans 14, South Gate 20.

The Sultans completely outplayed the South Gate team by registering 138 to 42 yards gained on the ground, and tallied 10 first downs compared to South Gate's 5.

Iowa Continues To Lead Ratings

NEW YORK (UP) — The Iowa Hawkeyes retained a slender grip on first place today in the United Press International major college football ratings while the undefeated-untied Louisiana State Tigers pounced into the runnerup spot.

Defeats suffered Saturday by several of last week's highly-ranked teams enabled Northwestern and Notre Dame to climb back into the top 10 and produced several position changes among those that remained in the select group.

MISSISSIPPI, SHUT out by Louisiana State in their "meeting" of the unbeaten, and Pittsburgh, upset by Syracuse, dropped out of the top 10.

Iowa, which collected one of its Christmas presents early when it defeated Michigan for the first time in 34 years, received 13 first-place votes and a total of 305 points from the 35 leading coaches who rate the teams.

Army slipped from second to third with three first-place votes and 250 points. Auburn was next with a first-place vote and 196 points and Oklahoma was close behind in fifth place with the

Rancho Park

Clever ideas are what make the Rancho Park so successful. The year and a half old Rancho began with one of the best. They presented a Rally Turkey Dinner. At this dinner 170 residents attended, all buying tickets and at the same time enjoying the delicious turkey dinner put on by the best cooks of the park.

Fred Fiddler, who has been a resident of Rancho for six years and is very active in charitable organizations, was the lucky winner of the $2,000 Jewel Trailer which was given as a prize at the Rally.

RANCHO WAS ALSO very active in the Fashion Show of the Rally. All five entrants of Rancho won prizes. They included Gladys Snyder, who won with the very attractive square dance dress made out of material she had purchased in India. This material was indeed colorful, although only costing her $1 there in India. Winetta Mason, Nellie Wilson and Mary Keaton also won prizes for their outstanding creations, and Gladys Allard for her pink outfit which was also handknit.

Skyridge

The participation of Sky Ridge in the annual Palm Springs Rally is always a big event. The Rally was one of the best ever, with Sky Ridge selling the largest percentage of registrations for the participating parks, with the average of 165% per cent of the quota. Bert and Ann Conroy did a superb job, as did all the residents of Sky Ridge.

Leon Woolington helped a great deal as shuffle chairman for the visiting trailists.

MERLE HANCOCK, Sky Ridge's owner and manager, as president of the Palm Springs Area Trailer Parks directed the various phases of the Rally to its successful finale.

The many friends of Flo Barnes and Nina Filkin were happy to see them return to the desert. They have their last year's space again, which they landscaped so well in the past. Flo and Nina spent the summer at Mira Mar Trailer Village. They had their relatives from Venezuela, Robert Bartholomew and family visit them; also their cousin from Honolulu, Myrtle Walker.

MARGARET GISH (Puck), with accompanist, Lois Lutz, entertained the guests at the Sky Ridge Park. Margaret was soloist at the Trailer Rally. She is a well known soloist and has sung in many large churches in Los Angeles and other cities. Her husband, Henry, has been a friend of the Hancocks for many years. Leon and Edna Woolington spent a busy summer. They visited in British Columbia and relatives in Corvallis, Ore. They returned by way of San Francisco, where they spent a week with their son, Dr. S. S. Woolington.

Healing Waters Trailer

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bridenbecker were proud of their park's display at the Trailer Rally. Copper jewelry was displayed by Ray Hexmer; a crocheted afghan, pot holders and woven stool were on exhibit by Mrs. J. Heine; crocheted work and shell necklaces by Mr. and Mrs. G. Dunlap; crocheted work by Bertha Barger; an angel doll by Marcelle Burkow; cake decoration by Mabel Newman; leather bill fold by Betty Barnes.

Polished stone was presented by Mr. Eaton, a crocheted and booked pillow by Mrs. Ray Bridenbecker. The woodcarving won second award, with book binding, etched copper and jewelry entered by Ray Roscoe.

Palm Valley

Some outstanding examples of creative work were shown on Palm Valley's hobby table at the Trailer Rally and two of the entries were by 11-year-old residents. These belonged to Wendy Jackson, who contributed hot mats and frames, and braided leather key chains and leashes and the rock collection of Denver Mills.

Grace Deussen displayed ceramics and ring holders. Bob Demison, however, ran away with the prize for his beautiful woodwork displayed in his ramonoli and cribbage board.

HAZEL WILSON and Fran Smith entered their oil paintings and Hazel Wilson also won a second prize for her ceramic. Fran Smith's shell collection also was on display.

Guests of Palm Valley recently included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walter, who visited Glen Mills, their daughter.

David Barry spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lerner.

The Everitt Smiths had a pool party for their son-in-law and daughter, Bud and Marine Scott and grandchildren, Larry and Leslie.

A BARBECUE at the Colegrove trailer was greatly enjoyed by Carl and Helen Sayres. Helen also spent several weeks here last year.

Irene Murphy drove down from Los Angeles to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Connor.

A birthday party was held recently for Owen Wilk by Cordis Kennel. Those present were Don and Dorothy Wilcox, Gwen and Denny Wilk, and Susie and Danny Kennel. Each had an individual cake with candle and ice cream.

Desert Hills

The fair lady formed of Desert Hills have continued a "Co-op Activities Union," and plan to join the male division of the park for an outdoor barbecue in the near future.

Members elected by the new group include: Billy Fowler and Clara Yelocan, potluck administrators; Lenore McKelvey, entertainment chairman; Isabelle Gilbert, arts and crafts production manager; Elsie Steinberg, picture producer; Katy Williams, car pool conductor; Grace Wakely, publicity.

THE GROUP HAS set Nov. 6 as the date for the first potluck.

Dr. and Mrs. Moyle of Merced have returned to the park, and Joe and Bud Bremer, "native" park residents, are expected soon.

New residents include the C. E. Sutherlands of Long Beach, the Charles Strattons of Santa Ana, the George Vallones and the Creviers of Glendale.

Volk Slated

As New All Year Club President

Harry J. Volk, president of the Union Bank, has been nominated for president of the All-Year Club, community organization whose job is attracting money-spending tourists to Southern California.

Volk's nomination is tantamount to election which occurs Nov. 6 at the annual meeting of the board of directors at the Los Angeles Biltmore. He will head the All-Year Club in its 38th successive tourist advertising campaign, making it the oldest such organization in America. Tourists spend over one-half billion dollars a year here.

Vice presidents nominated were Charles Doley, partner in Coldwell, Banker and Co., first; Horace W. Browner, president of Occidental Life Insurance Co. of California; James C. Cantlon, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., third.

Area Building

Local Realtors Plan to Attend 54th CREA Convention in San Francisco

Realtors and real estate salesmen from every section of the State are planning to attend the 54th annual convention of the California Real Estate Association to be held at the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco, Nov. 6-8, it was announced by Ernie Dunlevie, president of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board, Members of the Palm Springs

Real Estate Board who will attend are Dunlevie, Harold Murphy, Lew Levy, Don Cameron, Isabel Cameron, John Munholland, Phil Short and Leon Savin.

CLIVE GRAHAM of Long Beach, president of the 27,500 member association, reports that plans for the program are now complete and that an outstanding group of nationally known speakers, as well as many prominent California Realtors, are scheduled to appear at the general sessions, conferences, panel meetings, and luncheon events.

The convention committee secured as a speaker Dr. Norman Vincent Peale of New York City, famed minister and author of "The Power of Positive Thinking." Dr. Peale will address a general session in the new Masonic Memorial Temple on Nob Hill on the subject "How to Develop your Dynamic Power."

GRAHAM REPORTED that Howard Pyle, deputy assistant to President Eisenhower and former Governor of Arizona, will deliver the convention's keynote address.

Other top speakers at the annual three day meeting include Arthur H. "Red" Motely of New York, president of Parade Publications and well known as the nation's top speaker on salesmanship, and James C. Downs, Jr., real estate economist and president of the Real Estate Research Corporation in Chicago.

DUNLEVIE SAID that the local Realtors are also looking forward to the many conferences and panel meetings on specialized subjects of real estate that will be featured at the convention. He said these include sessions on industrial real estate, property management, appraising, public relations, advertising, farm brokerage, multiple listing, exchanges, mortgage finance, shopping centers and many others.

A special post convention conference on multiple listing is scheduled at the Masonic Memorial Temple with representatives from more than 50 multiple listing services of real estate boards in the State appearing on the program. A featured speaker on the Multiple Listing program will be Fred W. Griesinger of Arcadia, Real Estate Commissioner.

DUNLEVIE SAID that many of the Realtors from Palm Springs are also planning to stay in San Francisco for the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards which immediately follows the CREA meeting. Headquarters for the NAREB convention will be the Fairmont and Mark Hopkins Hotels and the general sessions will be in the Masonic Temple.

Important speakers scheduled to address the NAREB convention include Dr. Daniel Poling, nationally known inspirational speaker and editor of the "Christian Herald" magazine.

OTHER SPEAKERS include Albert Cole, Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency; Dr. J. E. Wallace Sterling, president of Stanford University, George Klein Smith of the F. W. Dodge Corporation, and Austin Kiplinger, editor of the "Kiplinger Washington Letter."

"It is gratifying to see so many of our Realtors and their salesmen attend these conventions," said Dunlevie. By attending the well-planned educational sessions public in the purchase and sale they will increase their knowledge of real estate."

Encouraging Sign

ITHACA, N. Y. — (UPI) — A Cornell University professor tells a story aimed at encouraging writers who have trouble getting their material published.

Prof. Morris Bishop says two works by Peter van Dugrefin, a Swiss - French poet of the 13th century, were published for the first time recently as part of a student's thesis for a doctoral degree.

Early Start

WHEELING, W. Va. — (UPI) — The stress of becoming a human being apparently was just too much for an infant who became violently ill shortly after birth in a hospital here recently. The doctor x-rayed his stomach and saw — to their amazement — an active ulcer. It is believed to be the first documented report of an ulcer in a one-day-old baby.
